Vancier Magibleu's Conundrum

Vancier Magibleu is one of the most remarkable Magi in all the land, however he had one continuous issue: His Spell Crystal continues to get stolen. Rumored to either destroy 10,000 soldiers or create 10,000 cupcakes, it is understandable why it gets stolen each year.

Can you help him discover the culprit and get his spell crystal back? You'll need a keen eye and a clever wit to solve this mystery as clues to the identity of the culprit are littered about the festival. You must determine who stole the crystal, find Vancier (or his "Apprentices") at his Gazebo, and be rewarded for your efforts.

find the hats

-  Merchants around the realm have a sign with the Big Blue Hat on it.
-  The merchants will bestow upon the detective a letter.
-  Collect all the letters (some letters may repeat themselves) and unscramble them to uncover the culprit.
-  Be wary however, these letters may come at a price.
-  Remember at any time, Vancier and his "Apprentices" are available to assist at their Gazebo near the Tournament Field.
-  Once you have unscrambled the culprit seek out Vancier (or his "Apprentices") at his Gazebo to receive your reward.
-  Stay for Final Revels to help him unmask the villain.

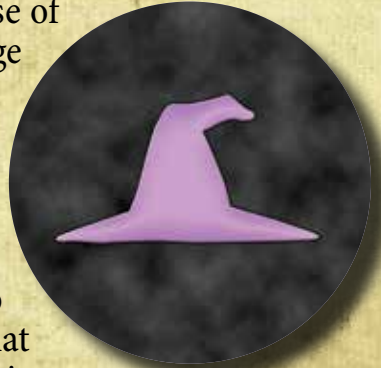

Vancier Magibleu's Conundrum

Lillianna's Lavenderspinner's Hard Mode

Lillianna has an additional task for those of 13 years or older (Or those of a younger age who think they are up for the harder task).

-  In this quest, Lillianna wants to know where the culprit hid Vancier's Crystal.
-  Seek out the citizens of the realm who wear the symbol of the purple hat upon them to find out where the item is not.
-  Please work on this at the same time as you search for the Blue hats.
-  Once you have narrowed the location down, bring BOTH the location and culprit's name back to the Gazebo in order to see if you have deducted correctly and receive your reward.
