welcome to anleigh

special thanks

2025 Has not been the easiest of years. Our community has seen their lives upturned by the economy, politics, potential military actions (both foreign and domestic). The costs of living have risen dramatically, people are on edge, and what comes tomorrow or the day after, no one can say. Here, though, in our fun little FAE world, our Fantasy kingdom is at ease; the grounds filled with interesting characters and the occasional thrown Fluffy Tomato.

To our patrons: As a volunteer from year one-I want to sincerely thank you all for being here and helping us carry forward this 14-year labor of love. As the General Manager, I'm grateful you've come to experience the incredible work of our volunteers who've poured their hearts into building and bringing this world to life. And as a performer, let me thank you in advance for the generous tips you'll be leaving at my show!

To My Volunteers: You've all worked so hard to bring this show to life, and I'm truly thrilled by the way you've embraced our new ideas with such enthusiasm. With exciting additions like Queen's Court and the new Bear's Cave, our faire continues to grow and thrive—and it's all thanks to you. Because of your passion and dedication, we get to spark imaginations and build meaningful connections with our patrons for yet another incredible year.

It means the world that, despite everything going on outside, we can still come together in this delightfully silly, safe space—a place where both volunteers and patrons can feel accepted, supported, and free to be themselves without judgment.

We love our people and are proud of the world which we have envisioned and built together.

Thank you for Joining Us at the Midsummer Fantasy Renaissance faire, Where we Inspire Imagination and there are No Kings.

Sincerely,

James Miron, General Manager

The kingdom
of Cuulayne
readies itself
for a prosperous
midsummer festival.
But amidst the bright
light of celebration,
darkness seeps in.
It's up to old friends
and new to unite and put a stop to this formidable foe once
and for all.

He focuses exclusively on the style of Irish music unique to the Sliabh Luachra region, and frequently travels to Ireland to learn and perform.
